Dinner was served.

- The board of directors would like to know how many of our members are not attending our meetings because they are attending the TU meetings in Manchester. We would consider moving our meeting to another night if that would mean our meetings would be better attended.
- Ray Philippon won the dinner raffle, and Brenda will take his free dinner at our next meeting. Sean Clark won the raffle of Bob Broadhurst flies.
- The Marlboro Fly Fishing show is now scheduled for April 22, 23, and 24.
- Bob Cox will be tying flies with any members who would like to join him at the church on March 21, at 6 PM.

Our guest speaker, Chris Kokorda, gave a fabulous presentation that had all of us excited about sight fishing the Cape Cod flats for BIG striped bass. Chris runs a two-day Orvis salt fly fishing school at the Chatham Bars Inn on Cape Cod throughout the fishing season and guides in between his courses. His presentation was attended by only about fifteen members, but another five attended via Zoom. If you would like to contact Chris, his email is: CKokorda@Yahoo.com.

The meeting adjourned, as usual, at around 9:30 PM

Respectfully submitted,
Dave Braica,
